CW Children's Drama Club: Peter Pan

Date and Time: Wednesday, March 6 5:00 pm - 6:00 pm

Address: 244 St Andrew St W, Fergus, ON N1M 1N7

On Saturday April 27th, CWCDC presents Peter Pan, a “non-Disney-fied” version of J.M. Barrie’s classic tale, written and directed by Katy Chapman. Productions will hit the stage at 2pm and 7pm each day.

“The kids have been having a blast working on their comedic timing, while getting into their characters during rehearsals. They can’t wait to bring this production to life”, stated Gerard Gouthro, director of In The Bleachers. Katy Chapman, director of Peter Pan added “our talented group of young actors has been exploring contact improv, shadow work and stage combat while preparing to make their characters and the audience’s imaginations come to life”.

Since September, both groups of local young actors have been working on acting techniques, getting to know their plays, their roles, learning their lines and getting into character.

The Centre Wellington Children’s Drama Club began in the mid 1970s and is made up of 45 local kids in Grades 4-8 with a passion for acting. They come together to learn, develop, and enhance their unique artistic abilities through creative dramatic expression, becoming talented and confident young people. The kids work with their Director for half of the year learning and developing technique, and for the other half of the year practicing their play. The club supports and encourages members in a positive and ‘play’-ful approach.
