Bob Marley Tribute Concert

Presented by the Centre Wellington Black Committee as part of Black History Month

The Fergus Grand Theatre will play host to "A Tribute to Bob Marley," featuring outstanding performances by Errol Blackwood and reggae veteran Jimmy Reid. Reid, the 2024 Reggae North Awards Living Legend recipient, will bring his remarkable 60-year career to the stage, alongside Blackwood, to celebrate the indelible spirit and legacy of Bob Marley's music.

As part of our Awakened Voices Concert Series, this evening will be an unforgettable tribute to one of reggae's most iconic figures. The event aims to honor Bob Marley's profound cultural and musical contributions, inspiring unity and positivity within our community. Join us for a night of soulful performances and vibrant celebration as we pay homage to a legendary artist and the rich heritage of the Black community.

"This tribute to Bob Marley is not just a celebration of his music, but a tribute to the enduring legacy of resilience, love, and unity that his work represents. We hope this event will inspire our community to come together and honor the rich heritage and contributions of Black culture." – Millicent, Founder and Chair of the Centre Wellington Black Committee.

Don't miss this chance to honor Bob Marley's legacy and enjoy a night filled with music, culture, and community spirit! Get your tickets now and be part of this inspiring tribute. For more information, please contact the Centre Wellington Black Committee at cwblackcommittee@gmail.com.
